

List of Case Outcomes & Corresponding Follow-up Action(s) Type of Case Outcomes

Type of Case Outcomes	Follow-up Action(s)
Bail Extended	Accused person shall be released by the Police Officer from the courtroom after he had received the mention slip from the Court Interpreter or the Court Officer.
Bail Offered	Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for subsequent processing.
Bail Increase
Bail Revoked
Bailor Discharge
Bail Pending Deferment (BPD) for only imprisonment Sentence	If there is no change to the bail conditions and the bail is extended by the Court, accused person shall be released by the Police Officer from the courtroom after he had received the mention slip from the Court Interpreter or the Court Officer. If there are any changes to the bail conditions (e.g., increase in bail amount) or the bail is not extended by the Court, the accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for subsequent processing.
Bail Pending Deferment (BPD) for Fine + Imprisonment Sentence	Accused person will be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for subsequent processing.
Bail Pending Appeal (BPA)	The accused person will be taken into custody by the police officer and subsequently transferred to the State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for further processing as standard procedure. However, in instances where the presiding judge issued instructions to extend the current bail arrangement and defer the Bail Pending Appeal (BPA) process to a later time, the accused person will not need to be taken into custody.
Bail Pending Appeal (BPA) with Personal Bond (PB)	Accused person will be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for subsequent processing.
Bail Offered to Stand (BOTS)	The accused person is a remandee under SPS's custody, as such he will continue to remain under SPS's custody.

Bail Review	Once the application is heard, the remandee is to be managed by SPS for subsequent processing.
Application to Leave Jurisdiction	The Court may grant the application with or without changes to the existing bail conditions. Once the application is heard, the accused person can be released from the Court by the Police Officer. The bailor can choose to exercise the new bail conditions e.g., Increased bail amount if proceeding with the application or remind with the current bail extended status if decided not to proceed with the application.
Sentenced to imprisonment	Accused person will be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be hand over to SCLU for subsequent processing.
Sentenced to a Fine only	Police to ascertain whether accused person will be paying the fine.
Not paying fine Accused to be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to State Courts Lock-up (SCLU) for subsequent processing. Paying fine a) Accused person to verify personal details on the provided Payment Advice Chit (PAC). b) Police officers will assist sentenced accused persons with payment using kiosks or wireless methods. Officers will verify payment completion by checking receipts or digital confirmations before allowing the accused to leave. Police are not required to record payment details, as these will be automatically updated in the Courts' system. c) If the NOK/friend/lawyer is making the fine payment on behalf of the accused person, the PAC to be given to the payor. The accused person will be held in the dock at the respective Court by the Police Officer until payment has been fulfilled. The Police officer guarding the accused person will release him once the payor has fulfilled the payment of the fine. d) If accused person is granted to pay the fine in instalment, police will assist the with payment using kiosk or wireless methods. If the Court order is for the first instalment payment to be made forthwith. Accused may be released after making the payment. Police are not required to record payment details, as these will be automatically updated in the Courts' system. e) If the accused is granted a deferment of the first instalment payment, accused can be released after he has received the instalment plan from the Court Officer. If an NOK or someone wants to pay the fine for the accused person after he/she is handed over to SCLU, Police will direct them to the Court officer or Level 4 Bail Centre for the payment process.
Sentenced to Imprisonment + Fine	Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer. Police to ascertain whether the Accused is paying the fine by

	himself/family member/friend. Not paying fine Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing. Paying fine PAC to be verified by the accused person before passing it to the payor or retained by the accused person if he is paying on his own. If paying by other payer, once the PAC is handed over to the payer, accused person shall be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing. If accused person is paying on his own, he shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing.
Discharge Amounting to Acquittal (DATA)	Accused person who is on bail shall be released from the courtroom by the Police Officer. Remandee to be managed by SPS for release.
Discharge Not Amounting To Acquittal (DNATA)
Notice to Surety (NS) Case	After the Court ordered for the amount to be forfeited, if there is no in-default imprisonment sentence pronounced by the Court, the Surety will be directed by the Police Officer to wait at the public gallery for the Court Interpreter or the Court Officer to pass him the Payment Advice Chit (PAC) or documentation. Surety will then proceed to the payment kiosk on his own. If the Court ordered for an in-default imprisonment sentence, the Surety will be held in the dock by Police officer to wait for the Court Interpreter or the Court Officer to pass him the PAC. Thereafter, if the Surety is making payment, the Police officer will usher him to the payment kiosk. When there is an in-default sentence imposed and the surety is unable to make payment for the forfeiture, he/she will be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing.

Calling for Probation Report	Accused person will be taken into custody by the Police Officer if there are any changes to the bail conditions. He will be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing. If there is no change to bail condition, he will be released from the courtroom by the Police Officer.
------------------------------	---

Calling for Reformative Training Centre (RTC) Report	Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing.
Calling for Probation & RTC Report
Short Detention Order (SDO)
Calling for Probation & RTC Report
Calling for Corrective Training / Preventive Detention Report	Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing unless judge extend existing bail.
Short Detention Order (SDO)	Accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing.
Mandatory Treatment Order (MTO)	If the accused person is on bail or is not sentenced to be remanded at IMH, he shall be released from the courtroom by the Police Officer.
Day Reporting Order (DRO)	Accused person who is on bail shall be released from the courtroom by the Police Officer.
Community Service Order (CSO)
Halfway House	If the accused person is under the custody of SPS, he will continue to be managed by SPS. If the Investigating Officer (IO) is in courtroom, he shall be handed over to the IO for referral to the 'Home'. If the IO is not present in the courtroom, the accused person shall be taken into custody by the Police Officer and to be handed over to SCLU for subsequent processing.